Our Termly Value: Truthfulness

'If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.' – Mark Twain

I am sure you are now all aware of the recent update in Government guidance that has stated that wider reopening of schools will not happen before the summer break. This will mean that many children will not have the opportunity to return to school and will be working from home until September at the earliest. The school will continue to provide learning packs over the course of this half term.

We are beginning to reach capacity in our two classes and only have limited spaces left. If you wish to accept a place, are a key worker or have a child in Reception, Y1 or Y6 then please contact the office. School will make every effort to meet the requests where they can.

At present, it is difficult to confirm what school will look like in September and we will await the guidance that follows in due course and let you know.

This week we have had some normality of sorts in school – Morning walks around the field; Forest School; Archery and a visit from two Guinea pigs (they were very difficult to socially distance!). However, the place remains quiet and is not the same without all the children there to liven things up!

Poking around the office I came across an amazing piece of artwork tucked away. The stained glass window, I am told was a project last year (very impressive!) and is now proudly displayed in the entrance hall.

E-Safety

Have a look at this website – loads of information for parents/carers.

Also, lots of fun games for children of all ages that have an e-safety focus.

As always we will try to keep you up to date with new developments.

In the meantime, stay safe and look after yourselves.
