Our Termly Value: Generosity

He will make sure that I always have everything I need with plenty left over to share with others.

Proverbs 13:4

The school has been filled with fun this week. There has been some excellent learning going on and it has been so impressive to see the children really beginning to apply the Youcan Toucan mantra in their lessons.

Youcan has been around for about a year now and we have really brought him to the forefront of lessons this term. His mantra helps children understand what good learning behaviours are and how to apply these to their work. The belief that 'you can' do anything if you apply yourself, persevere and are resilient is beginning to really help children approaches challenges in a new way.

The wildlife club went on a short walk this week to identify trees and plants in the local area and Mrs Greaves would like to say thank you to the helpers that made this possible.

Well done to Jasper Allen who gained a Privilege Card for super work in RE this week. Jasper clearly understood how he could do God's work for him on Earth. Jasper said he was going to help with the cooking, would be nice to others and would remember that God loves him.

Mr Cassidy was very impressed with Esme, Tallulah and Anna's fantastic lighthouse stories.

Over the past week Malvern Class have been very busy creating posters for the 'Great Exhibition.' Hopefully we can publish some to share on the windows of Malvern class.

Elijah also reminded the class how they have had a great time learning all about disease and decay in Victorian times!

Staff Absence

Unfortunately, Mrs Tyler will not be returning to school before half term and is currently at home at the request of the doctor. We all wish her well and hope to see her back soon. We are grateful to Mr Cassidy who has stepped in to lead May Hill class and who will be with us until the half term break.

Huge congratulations to Raffi for being the first person to make it into the Golden Book this year! Last week he showed respect for others and displayed the qualities of a good friend in a challenging situation!
